Working in teams participants will be able to explore various art techniques to create a painting that will connect with other teams paintings to produce a large masterpiece!

They'll also need to work with the other teams to discuss the "bigger picture".

The final result of Team Picassos are unique masterpieces that you can display back at your work place either individually or as a whole.

The finished result is evidence that it's a culmination of everyone's efforts.

The one of kind art piece radiates with each person's special touch!
